Scottsdale, AZ (PRWEB) November 4, 2009 -- Face to Face Live, Scottsdale, AZ, recently elected Mr. Ronald A. Larson to its Board of Directors. Mr. Larson brings a wealth of experience in growing small to medium sized businesses, along with a keen understanding of the banking and leasing industry.

Mr. Larson's business experience is vast and impressive. Not only has Mr. Larson held numerous executive positions – either as a the Chief Executive Officer of a couple high profile capital groups or the Executive Vice President of a commercial bank - he also is a founding investor and director of Arizona Bank & Trust in Phoenix, AZ.

“In today's business climate, it is imperative to have the right people involved on the highest levels” said Al Smith, CEO of Face to Face Live. “When I met with Mr. Larson to discuss a possible partnership, it quickly became apparent that my company needed his expertise and wisdom on our leadership team.”

Face to Face Live was founded on the idea of offering affordable high definition video conferencing and collaboration solutions for businesses and organizations of all sizes, from one person consulting operations to the Fortune 500.
